Wanamaker Clothing

What salary do you suppose is paid to the tailor who makes your clothing to order? Probably a fifth, or at most a quarter of what is paid to the experts who cut and design Wanamaker clothing ready-made. This is the reason why hundreds of men who wear Wanamaker clothing look so much better than men who get their clothing made to order elsewhere. Every suit and overcoat is designed and cut over the most artistic model that expert skill has produced, and the variation of models shown in these extensive stocks permits of the broadest possible selection. The fabrics are of the very highest order, and the tailoring and finish of the individual suits frequently surprise men who take the pains to examine the details of workmanship.

Men's Surtout Overcoats, of which any tailor would be proud, made of heavy Oxford or black frieze, at $25 and $30. Of heavy black tiber, at $40.

Other Overcoats for men, from the handsome all-wool, carefully tailored overcoats at $15 up to the most sumptuous silk-lined beaver cloth or genuine Montagnac Overcoats, at $60.

Men's Fancy Suit Suits in the smartest styles brought out this season, handsomely tailored, at $15 to $40.

Plain Black Sack Suits, at $15 to $25.

An unusually large assortment of Men's Fancy Vests, at $3.50 to $12 each.

Main floor, Wanamaker Building.

Novelty Patterns in Rajah Silks

RAJAH SILKS have won enormous popularity in the past, but have been piece-dyed in self-colors only. Now the makers of these superb silks have produced them in handsome, original and most striking novelty effects, in checks, plaids and stripes of about a hundred and fifty distinctly different varieties. They deserve to be the most popular silks for the new season; certainly they will win an enormous majority of popularity. Both fabric and patterns have a dignity and style rarely seen in silks, and their serviceable qualities are well known. 27 inches wide, $1.50 a yard. A few of the more elaborate patterns are $1.75 a yard.

Second floor, Broadway, Stewart Building.

Women's Tailored Suits at $20

Formerly $27 to $35

This is a collection of smartly Tailored Suits from our own stocks. They are made of cheviots, broadcloths, mixtures in suitings, also velveteens. With semi-fitting, blouse, Eton, double and single-breasted hip-length and three-quarter length coats, variously trimmed with braid, piping and velvet, and some entirely plain. Lined with taffeta silk or satin. Skirts made in various plaited styles. Formerly $27 to $35, today at $20 a suit.

In our regular stocks we show a very large assortment of Tailor-made Suits, in the best and newest styles, at $15 to $75. Specially attractive models at $26, $36, $45 and $47.50.

Third floor, Stewart Building.

Holiday Gifts in Silver

MANY beautiful Novelties in Nickel Silver come from England, where they have won enormous popularity. Included are After-dinner Coffee Sets in frames, to be used for serving coffee in smoking rooms. Also Afternoon Tea Stands with dainty cups. Other pieces are Asparagus Sets, Sardine Stands, Toast Racks, Hand-wrought Orange Baskets in sterling silver, and Pepper Grinders in odd shapes.

There is also an unusually large collection of quaint Dutch Silver, all hand-made pieces, in reproductions of antique patterns. Included are Tea Spoons, Coffee Spoons, Bonbon Boxes, Tea Sets, Picture Frames, Hunting Cups, Candlesticks and other cabinet pieces.

Of course, there is a very extensive assemblage of American Sterling Silver Hollowware. All sorts of table pieces, as well as table decorations—Vases, Tea Sets, Serving Dishes, new Sandwich Plates, Pitchers, Bowls, and sterling-silver mounted Cut Glass Articles in wide assortment.

Silver Store, Tenth street, Stewart Building.

"Wanamaker Special" Suits for Boys

These suits selling at $5, and made specially for Wanamaker's, are of a quality that presents a full dollar-and-a-half of extra value compared with five-dollar clothing sold elsewhere. Every fabric is absolutely all-wool in every thread. We prove this by the supreme test of boiling every fabric in acid before it is accepted by us. We have never found a suit sold elsewhere at this price of which this could be said.

Included are Norfolk and Double-breasted Jacket Suits and trousers, made of plain blue or mix cheviots, in sizes for 8 to 16 years. The styles are the handsomest brought out this season. All seams are double sewed with silk thread. $5 a suit.

Also Boys' Reefers of extra quality chinchilla, in sizes for 3 to 12 years, at $5 each.

And for the older boys, of 8 to 16 years, Oxford Frieze Top Coats, warm and serviceable, at the same price—$5 each.

Main floor, Wanamaker Building.

Rare and Fine Books

IN our fine Book Shop—The Longfellow House—will be found one of the choicest collections of old and rare books and beautifully bound books to be found in New York City. Our book man, during his foreign tours, searches thruout Great Britain and the Continent for rare and valuable editions of standard works, and has them bound by such masters of the craft of binding as Zaehndorf, Riviere, Morrell and Orrock. Some are illustrated by the Cruikshanks, Rowlandson, Leech, Crowquill and Phiz. And this provides remarkable opportunity for the selection of valuable gifts for book lovers, in books that there is no danger of duplicating.

In addition, there are finely bound books in sets and individual books representing standard works of great authors, such as are always desired for fine holiday gifts. The Book Shop is most interesting at the present time.
